The following statement can be attributed to Bill Faith, executive director of the Coalition on Homelessness and Housing in Ohio (COHHIO), on news that Ohio Attorney General Richard Cordray has been appointed to head the enforcement division of the new Consumer Financial Protection Bureau.

“President Obama and Bureau Special Adviser Elizabeth Warren could not have made a better choice. Richard Cordray is thoughtful, thorough and smart. His sustained efforts against toxic lending products and fraudulent bank behavior have helped countless Ohioans. We look forward to seeing his vision unfold at the federal level. Ohio's loss is the nation's gain.”
